

Constitution Day at Navy Children School, Kochi

26 November 2019:

Navy Children School, Kochi celebrated 'Constitution Day' or 'Samvidhan Divas' on the 26th of December 2019 to commemorate adoption of the Indian Constitution in 1949. Students put up a conundrum of events to endorse the spirit of the day.

The celebrations commenced with the morning assembly followed by a Reading of the Preamble by Anusree of Class XII and thereafter an appraisal of Fundamental Duties by Avani also of Class XII. The audience comprehended that a constitution of a nation helps serve a set of rules and principles that the citizens of the country agree upon, so that the country can be governed smoothly.

Students of Class VI rendered a song "Swatantrata ka bal deta hai" pertaining to the integrated plurality of the nation. In addition, a skit on fundamental rights was also enacted by students of Standard VI. The vocal and theatre helped give utterances to the feeling of loyalty and patriotic fervour for the motherland.

A handful of students from Class XI presented a power-point presentation before the audience representing the origins and salient features of the Indian Constitution. The presentation provided a brief history of the constitution and how it works. Moreover, it helped affirm the fundamental rights and duties of an Indian citizen.

On the whole, the programme helped students understand the function and administration of the government machinery. The students understood that the Constitutional Laws are the supreme laws of the nation which protects their rights and affirms the duties to all Indian citizens. As such, the common persons are reckoned to uphold ones rights and kindle the patriotic vehemence towards the country.
