

HINDI DIWAS CELEBRATIONS (11th September)

Every year Hindi day is celebrated on 14 September. It was on this day that Hindi in Devanagari script was adopted as the official language of India. Hindi Day was organized for the first time in the year 1953. The purpose of celebrating Hindi Day is to keep in mind the churning on the status and development of the Hindi language.

NCS (K) observed this day with utmost respect and privilege. The students of NCS (K) put up an astonishing virtual assembly to mark the importance of the day. Started the programme with a beautiful song, then they said aloud the importance of Hindi language by holding some placards.

They made the day beautiful and remarkable with their soothing voice and dazzling dance performances.

There was also an informative presentation to highlight the significance of the day. The students also presented a marvelous show “Nukut Nadak”, which was indeed a visual treat for everyone.

The programme was a virtual treat to instill and evoke a sense of love and respect to Hindi language.
